By Road: From the North.

From the North take the M6 and leave at Junction 10. Take the Black Country Route (A463). This is dual carriageway (watch those speed cameras!).

Stay on it (approximately 5 miles) until you arrive at a T junction with the A4123. Turn left heading for Dudley and go through one set of traffic lights. At the second set of lights (Macdonalds) turn left. Henne Drive is then first left.

From the South (M6)

From the South take the M6 and exit at Junction 10 and use the above directions.

From the South West (M5)

From the South West take the M5 Junction 2. Take the A4123 (Wolverhampton). Continue towards Wolverhampton (over Burnt Tree Island) after approximately 5 miles, look out for a Macdonalds on your right. Turn right into Ivyhouse Lane and Henne Drive is on your left. Alternatively continue on the M5 joining the M6 and exit at Junction 10 M6 taking the A463.

By Rail

Go here for the timetables

http://www.centro.org.uk/Rail%Network/trains/Timetables/Wolverhampton/Wolverhampton-Bham_0606.pdf

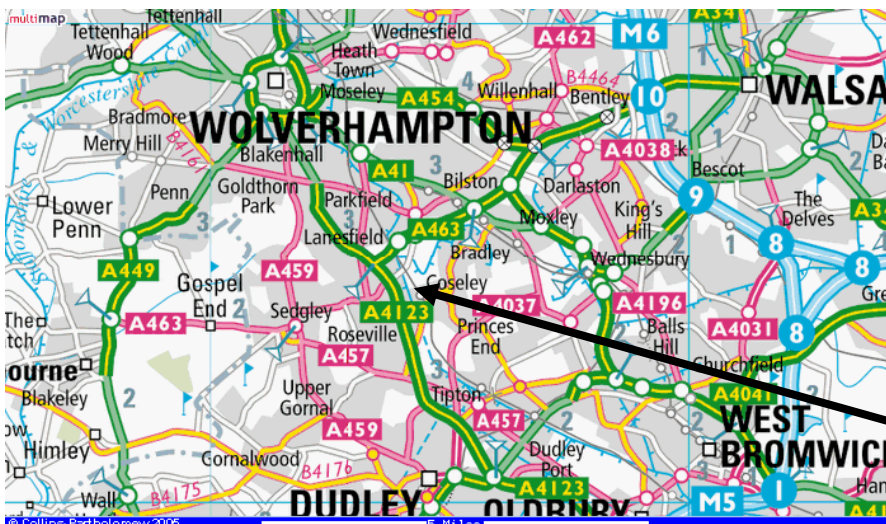

The main Birmingham to Wolverhampton rail line runs parallel with the school and it is five minutes walk away from COSELEY STATION. Trains run every hour in both directions. Catch the train from Birmingham New Street. (Trains from Birmingham Airport stop at New Street).

By Taxi (from Wolverhampton Station)

A taxi from Wolverhampton should cost in the region £10. Ask for “Coseley, Birmingham New Road”

As Angela pointed out you could even come by Canal Boat as the Birmingham Canal runs alongside the school.

You have no excuse not to come to the show now!!!
